RECEPTIONS OF PAUL IN EARLY CHRISTIANITY

The Person of Paul and His Writings Through the Eyes of His Early Interpreters

2018. x, 910 pages

HC RRP € 129.95 [D] / US$ 149.99 / £ 118.00 • ISBN 978-3-11-053370-5

The volume examines the impact of Paul's personality and theology in writings that became part of the New Testament and in texts ascribed to the ancient Christian apocrypha and the Apostolic Fathers. Paul's influence is also shown in a collection of his letters, which became a major part of the New Testament. In doing so, the authors shed light on the process that led to the "canonical Paul".

Jesús Peláez, Juan Mateos

NEW TESTAMENT LEXICOGRAPHY

Introduction – Theory – Method

2018. xli, 331 pages, 40 fig.

HC RRP € 129.95 [D] / US$ 149.99 / £ 118.00 • ISBN 978-3-11-040813-3

This text presents the method of semantic analysis and the methodology employed for constructing the entries in Diccionario Griego-Español del Nuevo Testamento. For the first time, modern semantics and linguistics have been systematically incorporated for composing this dictionary's entries. Six fascicles have already been published so that the analysis of the vocabulary of the New Testament now extends to the letter delta.

David Ganz, Barbara Schellewald (Eds.)

CLOTHING SACRED SCRIPTURES

Book Art and Book Religion in Christian, Islamic, and Jewish Cultures

2018. viii, 313 pages

HC RRP € 129.95 [D] / US$ 149.99 / £ 118.00 • ISBN 978-3-11-055767-1

This volume explores the aesthetic dimension of medieval book religions. Around the Mediterranean and in Europe, Christian, Islamic and Jewish communities shared a common interest in embellishing sacred texts: artistic devices such as calligraphy, illumination, diagrams and precious bindings were believed to transform sacred scripture into holy objects. The chapters of this book examine these phenomena from a transcultural perspective.

1. WELCOME

HERZLICH WILLKOMMEN!

wir begrüßen Sie sehr herzlich zum 74. General Meeting der Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas (SNTS) in unserer schönen Stadt Marburg und an der althehrwürdigen Alma Mater Philippina, der Philips-Universität Marburg. Wir freuen uns, dass sie den Weg nach Marburg auf sich genommen haben. Marburg ist eine Stadt im Herzen Deutschlands, die zwar nicht zu den großen Zentren der Politik, Wirtschaft und Finanzen gehört, aber als einer der bedeutenden Orte in Deutschland gelten kann, an denen die Wissenschaften seit inzwischen fast 500 Jahren zuhause sind. Die Universität Marburg wurde 1527 durch Philipp den Großmütigen (1504–1567), den Landgrafen von Hessen gegründet und ist heute die älteste protestantische Universität der Welt. Sie wird im Jahr 2027 ihr 500jähriges Bestehen feiern und hat derzeit etwa 26.800 Studierende aller Fächer. Die Stadt Marburg gehört zu den wichtigen Stätten der Reformation. Im Jahr 1529 fand hier das Marburger Religionsgespräch zwischen Ulrich Zwingli und Martin Luther statt. Nach dem Zweiten Weltkrieg wuchs die katholische Gemeinde stark an und ist heute ein wichtiger Bestandteil des christlichen Lebens in Marburg. Der Runde Tisch der Religionen führt darüber hinaus Vertreter/innen zahlreicher weiterer Religionsgemeinschaften zusammen.

Die Theologische Fakultät der Universität Marburg gehört zu den bedeutenden Ausbildungsstätten für Pfarrer/innen und Gymnasiallehrer/innen in Deutschland. In Marburg waren so herausragende Gelehrte des Neuen Testaments wie Johannes Weiß, Rudolf Bultmann (Präsident der SNTS 1953), Werner Georg Kümmel (Präsident der SNTS 1963), Dieter Lührmann und Friedrich Avemarie tätig. Heute verfügt die Fakultät über vierzehn Professuren und zahlreiche weitere Wissenschaftler/innenstellen.

Im Jahr 1954 fand das 9. General Meeting der SNTS mit ca. 65 Teilnehmern zum ersten Mal in Marburg statt. Das 74. General Meeting wird von mehr als 300 Neutestamentler/innen aus über 35 Ländern und allen fünf Kontinenten besucht. Wir hoffen, dass SNTS Marburg 2019 für alle zu einer inspirierenden wissenschaftlichen Zusammenkunft werden wird, und wünschen Ihnen einen angenehmen Aufenthalt und eine erfolgreiche Konferenz.

Lukas Bormann und Angela Standhartinger

WELCOME!

It is our pleasure to welcome you to the 74th General Meeting of the Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas (SNTS) in our beautiful city of Marburg and the venerable Alma Mater Philippina, the University of Marburg. We are glad that you decided to come to Marburg. Marburg is a city in the heart of Germany, which is not one of the major centers of politics, economics and finance, but can be considered as one of the distinguished places in Germany where the sciences and esteemed scholarship have been at home for almost 500 years.

The University of Marburg founded in 1527 by Philip the Magnanimous (1504–1567), the Duke of Hesse, is today the oldest Protestant university in the world. It will celebrate its 500th anniversary in 2027 and currently has about 26.800 students. The city of Marburg is one of the important sites of the Reformation. In 1529, the Marburg Colloquy took place between Ulrich Zwingli and Martin Luther. After the Second World War, the Catholic community grew strongly and is today an important part of Christian life in Marburg. The Round Table of Religions also brings together representatives of many other religious communities.

The Theological Faculty of the University of Marburg is one of the most important educational institutions for pastors and high school teachers in Germany. In Marburg outstanding scholars of the New Testament, such as Johannes Weiss, Rudolf Bultmann (President of SNTS 1953), Werner Georg Kümmel (President of SNTS 1963), Dieter Lührmann and Friedrich Avemarie were active. Today, the faculty has fourteen professorships and numerous other academic positions.

In 1954, the 9th General Meeting of the Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas (SNTS) took place for the first time in Marburg with about 65 participants. The 74th General Meeting will be attended by more than 300 New Testament scholars from over 35 countries and all five continents. We hope that SNTS Marburg 2019 will be an inspirational gathering for all and wish you a pleasant stay and a successful conference.

Lukas Bormann and Angela Standhartinger

In his new book, A Roman Commentary on St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians, Richard J. Cassidy interprets Paul's letter as at once counter-slavery and counter-imperial. Paul writes to the Philippian Christians as a chained prisoner in Nero's Rome. The Philippians are themselves experiencing Roman persecution. This book builds upon Professor Cassidy's earlier acclaimed studies regarding the counter-imperial dimensions of Luke's Gospel, John's Gospel, and the Acts of the Apostles.

EXCURSION 1 (WED):

PROTESTANTS AND ROMAN CATHOLICS IN MARBURG – WALKING TOUR

at 11.00:

Meeting point: outside, at the main entrance of the lecture building (Hörsaalgebäude)

PART I: ALTE AULA OF THE OLD UNIVERSITY AND ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH ST. PETER AND PAUL

The Philipps-University of Marburg was founded as the first Protestant university in 1527 by Duke Philipp of Hesse. At the end of the 19th century the main hall in the central university building was renovated. Highlights of the new old building “Alte Universität” are eight historical paintings by Johann Peter Theodor Janssen (1844-1908). There are painted scenes from the history of Hesse, including the meetings of the church, represented by Luther, Calvin, Bucer, with the state, represented by the Duke Philipp of Hesse at the Marburg colloquy of 1529. The paintings do not only tell history but are pieces of Germany’s Culture of Remembrance in the late 19th century. The Roman Catholic church of St. Peter and Paul was built in 1957-1959 when, at the End of World War II, many Catholic German refugees from the former eastern parts of Germany came to the former protestant city. The church is fascinating for its stained glass windows. Walking distance about 3000 m.

at 14.00:

PART II: ELISABETH AND HER CITY

Saint Elisabeth of Hungary (German: Elisabeth von Thüringen) was born in 1207 in Hungary and married Louis IV, Duke of Thuringia at the age of 14. After her husband’s death in 1227, Elisabeth moved to Marburg, sent her children away and regained her dowry, using the money to build a hospital where she herself nursed the sick. She became a symbol of Christian charity after her early death in 1231 and was canonized in 1235. St. Elisabeth’s Church was built from 1235-1288 by the Order of the Teutonic Knights. Her tomb made the church one of the most important pilgrimage destinations of the late Middle Ages. In the 16th century, the church became protestant and hosts to this today the grave of the Duke Philipp of Hesse (1504-1567). The Elisabeth church is the earliest example of German Gothic architecture and hosts major works of religious art. After a guided tour of the church itself we will follow the footsteps of this extraordinary saint. We will see the ruins of her hospital, the graveyard for the pilgrims, and head up to the Lutheran Pfarrkirche St. Marien, a church that hosted the Lutherans in Marburg after the duke Moritz of Hesse Kassel converted himself and the university to the Calvinistic faith in the early 17th century. Walking distance about 3000 m.

EXCURSION 2 (THU):*KASSEL

The city of Kassel, about 90 km north of Marburg, has one of the most important collections of museums in Germany, and Bergpark Wilhelmshöhe has been listed as a World Cultural Heritage Site. Every five years the city hosts for 100 days the world famous exhibition of modern art, the documenta (last time 2017). After an 80 min bus ride we will reach Kassel and have a walking tour (about 3500 m) to see some of the sixteen outdoor documenta objects of modern art that were originally planned as temporary exhibits but have been permanently preserved in Kassel. Among them are the Pickaxe of Claes Oldenburg from 1982, the 700 oaks of Joseph Beuys from 1982–1987, the man walking to the sky of Jonathan Borowsky from 1992. After lunch we will have a bus tour through Bergpark Wilhelmshöhe, an outstanding example of European garden design founded in the 17th century and a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2013. Visiting the park gives you the opportunity to experience the various landscape design concepts as a representation of absolutist mastery over a period of 300 years. The monumental baroque park architecture with the Octagon and the eight-metre-tall Hercules Statue, which is the symbol of Kassel, are noteworthy. We will be back at Marburg about 17.45.

at 8.30:

Meeting point: Erwin-Piscator-Haus (across the street from the Hörsaalgebäude)

EXCURSION 3 (FRI):*IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF THE BROTHERS GRIMM AND MARBURG CASTLE – WALKING TOUR

The brothers Grimm studied at Marburg from 1802-1805 and started here their world-famous collections of fairy tales. The Marburg artist Otto Ubbelohde illustrated them in the early 20th century with many Marburg motifs. The tour will lead us to the major places that inspired the work of the brothers Grimm and their illustrators, including the stairway to the castle from where one has a beautiful view above the city and a beautiful park with a rose garden. Finally there will be time to visit the castle, the residence of the Duke Philipp of Hesse. The castle was founded in the 11th century and holds today an exhibition of Marburg's cultural history. Walking distance about 4000 m.

at 09.00:

Meeting point: outside, at the main entrance of the lecture building (Hörsaalgebäude)

ORGAN MUSIC FROM ENGLAND, FRANCE AND GERMANY

Venue: Elisabethkirche, Elisabethstraße 3

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685–1750): Präludium und Fuge G-Dur BWV 541

Louis Vierne (1870–1937): Carillon de Westminster (Opus 54, No.6)

Short Biography

Constantin Scholl, geboren 1998, entdeckte schon früh seine Begeisterung für Musik. So nahm er mit sieben Jahren seinen ersten Klavierunterricht, den er mit vierzehn Jahren um eine kirchenmusikalische Ausbildung in seiner Heimatgemeinde Ewersbach erweiterte. Die Begeisterung für die Orgel führte ihn unter anderem mehrfach zu den C-Kursen der Kirchenmusikalischen Fortbildungsstätte Schlüchtern, wo er 2017 seine C-Prüfung mit Auszeichnung ablegte. Derzeit ist Constantin Scholl neben seinem Studium der Mathematik (Philipps-Universität Marburg) in der Funktion des Assistenten von Nils Kuppe, Bezirkskantor an der Elisabethkirche, als Organist tätig.

SATURDAY EXCURSIONS

OPTION 1: CELTIC WORLD (GLAUBERG) AND ROMAN FORT (SAALBURG)

Dr. Vera Rupp, believes that this place still holds many secrets waiting to be discovered by the active research community around the Celtic World Glauberg.

9.00–18.00:

Meeting point: Erwin-Piscator-Haus
(across the street from the Hörsaalgebäude)

I. CELTIC WORLD GLAUBERG

About 60 kilometers south-east of Marburg the idyllic region Wetterau is home to the Celtic World Glauberg. The finding of a monumental statue of a Celtic ruler (“Keltenfürst”) and the finds from three Celtic burials (5th century BCE) led to intense research on the Celts in Hesse and the European network of Celtic cultures. Today, these finds are recognised throughout the world as an archaeological sensation and as unique. The archaeological site located close to the town of Glauberg has seen several widespread excavations during which these breath-taking discoveries concerning the Celtic heritage have been made. The research, however, is far from finished and the leading archaeologist of the site, Director

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Leaving Marburg at 9.00 am, the first part of our excursion will take us to the recently built museum at the site, which has been awarded for its exemplary architecture and offers a magnificent view of the area, including the skyscrapers of Frankfurt and the Taunus mountains mentioned by Tacitus. At Celtic World Glauberg, we will have guided tours of about 60 minutes around the exhibition and the viewing platform on top of the museum. The tours will be offered in English and German. Afterward, we will be free to explore the site by ourselves and have a three-course summer buffet (included) with products from the region in the restaurant associated with the Museum. At around 13.30 we will be leaving for the second destination of our excursion.

II. ROMAN FORT SAALBURG

After a bus ride, we will arrive at the worldwide unique Roman fort Saalburg, reconstructed under the scholarly guidance of such outstanding scholars as Theodor Mommsen (1817–1903). Again Tacitus mentions a “castellum in monte Tauno”. The Saalburg is a reconstruction of a Roman fort which was part of the Upper Germanic-Rhaetian Limes (UNESCO world heritage in 2005). Since the start of its restoration in the early 20th century and to the present day, the fort has been one of the leading research centres of experimental archaeology worldwide, ranging from recreating ancient workshops to reenacting daily life at a Roman fort. The director of Saalburg museum, Dr. Carsten Amrhein, will show us an example of one of the more pleasing exhibits: the Roman leather working reconstructed by the Saalburg research centre influenced the “Gladiator Sandal” by Prada. The Saalburg is host to exhibitions of archaeological findings from the Roman era and also of operational replicas of ancient weaponry, rebuilt for experimental use by Prussian soldiers in the 19th century. One of the more recent sensational findings is the head of a life-sized gold-plated bronze equestrian statue dating back to 4 BCE to 16 CE that has been discovered in 2009.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

There will be guided tours in English as well as German introducing us to the important exhibits and the impressive locality. Between 15.15 and 17.00, we will have the opportunity to have a walk around the area or perhaps enjoy a Roman specialty at the Taberna (e.g. Lucanian sausage or moretum), the museum’s associated restaurant (not included). At 17.00, we will be heading back to Marburg where we will arrive at about 18.00.

OPTION 2: UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE, UPPER MIDDLE RHINE VALLEY

Photo: © Juraschek

8.30–19.00:
Meeting point: Erwin-Piscator-Haus
 (across the street from the Hörsaalgebäude)

UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE, UPPER MIDDLE RHINE VALLEY

The view over the rocks of the Lorelei is one of the most famous landscape motifs in the whole of Germany and worth a trip for many people from all over the world. It is situated in the Middle Rhine Valley with its castles, historic towns and vineyards, and graphically illustrates the long history of human involvement with a dramatic and varied natural landscape. We will start in Marburg at the Erwin-Piscator-Haus at 8.30. In the morning we will travel through the beautiful river Lahn valley to Limburg, Katzenelnbogen and Nastätten to the Lorelei, a 132 m (433 ft) high, steep, slate rock on the bank of the river Rhine. The old German name Lorelei, “murmur rock”, was given to the spot because heavy currents, a waterfall and a special echo produce a murmuring sound by the rock. There is no wonder that many tales about a singing mermaid who lured poor boatpeople by her singing inspired famous poets like Clemens Brentano and Heinrich Heine to compose their ballads and poems in the 19th century.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

A 90 minute guided tour on the top of the Lorelei-Plateau will bring to life the myth as well as the history of this famous landscape with considerable historical importance. After a lunch in the medieval town of St. Goarshausen at the riverside we will take a boat cruise on the river Rhine to Lorch (90min). We will have a fascinating view from the waterside of the canyon-shaped river valley with its castles, fortresses and vineyards. The bus takes us from Lorch back home to Marburg arriving at about 19.00 pm.

Neuausrichtung der Theologie

Ingolf U. Dalferth
Wirkendes Wort

Bibel, Schrift und Evangelium im Leben der Kirche
und im Denken der Theologie

488 Seiten | 14 × 21 cm | Hardcover
ISBN 978-3-374-05648-4
EUR 38,00 [D]

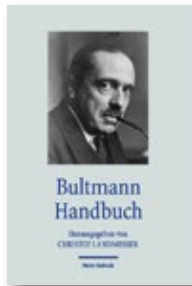

Ingolf U. Dalferth bestimmt das Verständnis von »Wort Gottes«, »Bibel«, »Schrift« und »Evangelium« neu und stellt damit das herrschende Theologieverständnis radikal infrage. Will Theologie eine Zukunft haben, muss sie wieder lernen, sich produktiv mit den Spuren des Geistwirkens im Leben der Menschen auseinanderzusetzen. Dalferth setzt hier neue Impulse und verbindet seine Ausführungen mit praktischen Reformüberlegungen.

MCKNIGHT

A Gospel of Peace

“Scot McKnight brings Romans to life in ways unmatched by traditional commentaries or textbooks. New connections and fresh resonances emerge from this well-conceived and well-written approach to Romans.”

The Beliefs of First Followers

“A study that will be required reading not only for audiences interested in the specific question of the science of resurrection among Jesus’ disciples but for anyone who wants to understand the evolutionary processes through which the thinking of Jesus’ earliest followers developed.”
